

1609/4940 1768[1767]

A List of BOOKS and PAMPHLETS printed for J. ALMON, opposite Burlington-House, in Piccadilly.

In the Press.

THE History and Proceedings of the British House of Commons; containing the most remarkable Speeches, Motions, Resolves, &c. &c. from 1746, to the End of the last Parliament in March, 1768. Printed in the same Size and Manner as the former Editions of Parliamentary Histories and Debates, to which this new Work is a complete Continuation. In 3 vols. 8vo.

2. The third and last Volume of the new Foundling Hospital for Wit; containing a Variety of curious original Pieces, by several Persons of Fashion. Price 2s 6d

3. Private Letters from an American in Old England, to his Friend in New England. In 2 vols. Price 5s.

4. An Enquiry into the Rights of the British Colonies. By Richard Bland, Esq; of Virginia. Just Published.

1. THE Controversy between Great-Britain and her Colonies reviewed. The several Pleas of the Colonies in Support of their Rights to all the Liberties and Privileges of British Subjects, and to Exemption from the Legislative Authority of Parliament, stated and considered. And the Nature of their Connection with, and Dependence on Great-Britain, shewn from the Evidence of historical Facts and authentic Records. Price 4s. sewed.

2. The Present State of the Nation, particularly with respect to its Trade, Finances, &c. Addressed to the King and both Houses of Parl. A new Edit. 2s.

3. A New Baronetage of England; or, a genealogical and historical Account of the present English Baronets, with all their Arms engraved and blazoned. To which is added, a complete List of all the Persons advanced to this Dignity, from the Institution of it to the present Time; with the Dates of their respective Patents. In 3 vols. Price 10s 6d. bound.

4. An Extinct Peerage of England; containing an Account of all those noble Families whose Titles are extinct; from the earliest Accounts to the present Time. In one vol. Price 3s. 6d. bound.

5. The Pocket Herald; or a complete View of the present Peerage of the three Kingdoms; giving an accurate Account of their Births, Marriages, and Issue; their several Employments, Titles, Creations and Residences; including all the late Alterations and Additions, to the present Time. Adorned with the Arms, Supporters, Crests, and Mottos, of all the Peers, (together with all the Bishops and Peereesses) of England, Scotland, and Ireland, engraved and blazoned. In two neat Pocket vols. Price 7s. bound.

Be careful to ask for the Pocket Herald; it being not only the cheapest, but the most correct Book of the Kind.

* * The above three Books being printed in an uniform Size and Manner, the whole six vols. may be had, neatly bound. Price One Guinea.

6. An Ode on the present Period of Time; with a Letter addressed to the Right Hon. George Grenville. Price 6d

7. The New Foundling Hospital for Wit. Consisting of a great Variety of Satirical and Humorous Pieces. By several eminent Persons. Part the First. Embellished with a curious Frontispiece. 2s. 6d.

8. The Second Part of the same Work. By the same Hands. Likewise embellished with a curious Frontispiece. 2s. 6d.—Both Parts are printed uniform, and make two neat Pocket Volumes. 6s. bound and gilt.

9. A Companion for a Leisure Hour. With a fine Frontispiece. 2s. 6d.

10. A Letter to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, on the present Situation of Public Affairs. 1s.

11. The True Sentiments of America; contained in a Collection of Letters sent from the House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, to several Persons of high Rank in this Kingdom. Together with certain Papers relating to a supposed Libel on the Governor of that Province; and a Dissertation on the Canon and the Feudal Law. 2s. 6d.

12. Letters from a Farmer in Pennsylvania, to the Inhabitants of the British Colonies, by John Dickenson, Esq; of Philadelphia. 2s.

13. Memoirs of Corfica. Containing the Natural and Political History of that important Island; the principal Events, Revolutions, &c. from the remotest Period to the present Time. An Account of its Products, advantageous Situation, and Strength, by Sea and Land. Together with a Variety of interesting Particulars, which have been hitherto unknown. By Frederic, Son of Theodore late King of Corfica. Illustrated with an accurate Map of Corfica. 3s. sewed.

14. The Original French of the above Work. 3s. sewed.

15. The Case of his Grace the D. of Portland, respecting two Leases, lately granted by the Lords of the Treasury to Sir J. Lowther, Bart. with Observations on the Motion for a Remedial Bill, for quieting the Possession of the Subject. And an Appendix, consisting of authentic Documents. 1s.

16. Observations on the Power of Alienation in the Crown before the First of Queen Anne, supported by Precedents, and the Opinion of many learned Judges. Together with some Remarks on the Conduct of Administration respecting the Case of the Duke of Portland. 1s.

17. A Caveat on the Part of Public Credit. 1s.

18. Makarony Fables: with the new Fable of the Bees. 2s. 6d.

19. The First Part of the History of England. Containing the Introduction. By John Wilkes, Esq; 2s. 6d.

20. Reflections on the Case of Mr. Wilkes. 1s.

21. Three interesting Tracts. By John Wilkes, Esq; viz. Observations on the Spanish Papers.—A Letter to the Electors of Aylesbury.—A Letter to the Duke of Grafton. 2s. 6d.

22. A Sentimental Dialogue between two Souls, in the palpable Bodies of an English Lady of Quality, and an Irish Gentleman. 1s.

23. Every Man his own Brewer; or, a Compendium of the English Brewery. Containing the best Instructions for the Choice of Hops, Malt, and Water, and for the right Management of the Brewing Utensils. Likewise the most approved Methods of brewing London Porter and Ale. Of brewing Amber, Burton, Western and Oat Ales. Of good Table Beer, and Marlborough, Dorchester, Nottingham and Bristol Beers. And of manufacturing pure Malt Wines. Of Fermentation; casual Distemperatures in Brewing, with the Cause and Remedy. The Theory of British Fruits, as applied to the Improvement of Malt Liquors. Of the Thermometer, its Use and Application in Brewery. Of Fire, and its Action on Malt and vinous Extracts. Together with a Variety of Maxims and Observations deduced from Theory and Practice. And some useful Hints to the Distillery, for extracting a fine Spirit from Malt, and other Ingredients. The whole illustrated by several Experiments. By a Gentleman lately retired from the Brewing Business. 3s. bound.

24. A Collection of the Lords Protests, from the First upon Record, in the Reign of Henry III. to the present Time. In 2 Vols. Octavo. 12s. bound.

Although it is presumed, that no Address to the Public will be necessary to recommend this Work, because it sufficiently speaks for itself, yet it may be requisite, for the Reader's Satisfaction, to shew in what Respects it differs from those which have gone before it. The first Collection of Protests was published in 1735; the second in 1743; and the third in 1747; all of them beginning with the year 1641, and ending with the Dates of their respective Publications. The Collection which is here offered to the Public; ascends to the First upon Record in the Year 1242, and is continued to the End of June 1767, thereby including several not made public before. Those of the last twenty Years will, in all Probability, be esteemed the most interesting, as the Subjects which gave Occasion to them are allowed to be of the utmost Importance. This Work is accompanied with an accurate and copious Index, which the other Collections want. And to the whole is subjoined, the very scarce and valuable Tract of St. Amand, on the Legislative Power of England: Wherein the Origin of both Houses of Parliament, their antient Constitution, and the Changes that happened in the Persons that composed them, with the Occasion thereof, are related in chronological Order; and many Things concerning the English Government, the Antiquity of the Laws of England, and the feudal Law, are occasionally illustrated and explained.

25. A New and Impartial Collection of Interesting Letters from the public Papers; many of them written by Persons of Eminence, on a great Variety of important Subjects, which have occasionally engaged the public Attention; from the Accession of his present Majesty, in October 1760, to May 1767; particularly on Mr. Pitt's Resignation in 1761; Lord Bute's Accession in 1762; the Peace, and other Measures of that Administration; Lord Bute's Resignation in 1763; all the original Letters, Papers, &c. &c. relative to the North Briton, and every Branch of Mr. Wilkes's Case; with a careful Selection of all the constitutional Essays, and judicious Observations on the various interesting Points of that celebrated public Cause; the whole of which were never before collected together: Several valuable Papers on Trials by Juries; Parodys on Chevy Chase; the remarkable Letters on the Change of Administration in 1765, by Anti-Sejanus, the Occasional Writer, J. J. &c. &c. A great Number on the Taxation of the Colonies; Mr. Pitt's Acceptance of a Peerage in 1766; the Measures of his Administration; Dearth of Provisions; Letters of Tranquillus; the supposed Correspondence with Buckhorfe; and above one Hundred others, on a great Variety of important Subjects. In two Volumes, Octavo, 10s bound.

The Merit and Importance which the News-Papers have, of late Years, acquired from the liberal Communications of Gentlemen of the first Rank, both in Politicks and Literature, have excited an universal Regret, at seeing the valuable Productions of such Writers doomed indiscriminately to Oblivion with the fugitive Pieces of the Day. It was the Want of a proper Publication, wherein to distinguish the Writings of such Authors, that suggested the Idea of this Collection, the Intention of which is to preserve and transmit to Posterity, such sensible and well-written Papers as appeared during the Years 1760, 1761, 1762, 1763, 1764, 1765, 1766, and 1767, on both Sides of every Question which arose from the Circumstances of the Times, the Necessities of the State, or the Humours of the Age.

26. The Political Register, published Monthly, Price 1s. each Number. This Work is divided into two Parts; the first consists wholly of original Essays and interesting Papers, many of them written and communicated by Persons of Eminence; and embellished with curious Prints; and the other a candid and disinterested Account of all new Publications.

27. A new Edition of Collins's English Peerage, continued to the present Time, and enriched with many valuable Additions. In seven Volumes Octavo, 2l. 12s. 6d. bound.

28. The Peerage of Scotland; a genealogical and historical Account of all the Peers of that antient Kingdom; their Descents, collateral Branches, Births, Marriages, and Issue. Together with a like Account of all the attainted Peers; and a compleat alphabetical List of all those Nobles of Scotland whose Titles are extinct; which was never before printed. Collected from Parliament Rolls, Family Documents, and personal Information of many noble Peers. With the paternal Coat of Arms, Crests, Supporters, and Motto's, most beautifully and accurately engraved. In one Volume Octavo, 6s bound.

29. The Peerage of the Kingdom of Ireland, upon the same Plan with that of Scotland, and the Arms executed in the same masterly Manner. In two Volumes Octavo, 12s bound.

++ The Authors profess to have given in these three Volumes the clearest, most authentic, and the best digested Account of the noble Families of Scotland and Ireland, hitherto published; and, by omitting unnecessary Digressions, and ostentatious Quotations from Histories and biographical Memoirs, which only serve to increase the Price, have exhibited their Genealogies clear and explicit, so that every collateral Branch is seen with great Facility and Exactness, and few even of the Gentry of Scotland and Ireland, who have intermarried with the Nobility of those Kingdoms, but may here discover by what Degree of Consanguinity they are allied.

30. The Speeches, Arguments, and Determinations of the Right Honourable the Lords of Council and Session in Scotland, upon that important Cause wherein his Grace the Duke of Hamilton and others were Plaintiffs, and Archibald Douglas, of Douglas, Esq; Defendant. Together with an introductory Preface, giving an impartial and distinct Account of this Suit. By a Barrister at Law. 5s bound, 4s sewed.

31. The complete Grazier, or Gentleman and Farmer's Directory; containing the best Instructions for buying, breeding, and feeding of Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs, and for suckling Lambs; a Description of the particular Symptoms commonly attending the various Distempers to which Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs, are subject; with the most approved Remedies: Directions for making the best Butter, several Sorts of Cheese and Rennet; different Methods of stocking a Grass Farm, with the particular Expence and Profits of each; how to prepare the Land, and several Sorts of Grass Seed to Advantage: Directions for raising proper Fodder for Cattle and Sheep; particular Instructions for ordering, breeding and feeding Poultry, Turkeys, Pigeons, Geese, Ducks, Bustards, Pea-Fowls, Pheasants, Partridges, and tame Rabbits; also Directions for making Fish-Ponds, or Canals, and for storing them, and ordering the Fish in the best Manner. With several other useful and curious Particulars. 3s bound.

32. The Royal Kalender for England, Scotland, and Ireland, a new Edition corrected to the present Time; containing accurate Lists of the complete Establishments of Great-Britain and Ireland, the four Houses of Parliament, all the Officers of State, Revenue, Law, &c. in the three Kingdoms, Army, Navy, &c. all with the last Corrections, and including above five thousand Names not in the other Books of this Kind. Together with the Arms, Supporters, Crests, and Motto's of the Nobility, engraved. 2s bound, and 2s 9d with an Almanack.

33. The Military Register: or new and complete Lists of all his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines. With accurate and useful Tables of their full Pay, Allowances and Deductions. Also Tables of the Arrears, calculated to shew, in the most easy and expeditious Manner, the Amount of Arrears for Officers of all Ranks in the Dragoons and Foot, for any Number of Days. These Tables will be found to be particularly useful to every Officer, who will thereby be enabled to form an exact Knowledge of the Accounts between him and his Agent. This Work contains an Alphabetical List of the Officers Names, with References to their respective Commissions. A List of the military Garrisons, with the Officers. And an Alphabetical List of all the Officers on Half-pay. Printed and published by Permission of his Majesty. 2s 6d bound, and 2s sewed.

34. The British Palladium for the Year 1769, containing a Variety of curious Articles in Literature and Science. 1s.

35. Debates in the House of Commons of Ireland, during the Years 1763 and 1764. Taken by a Military Officer. To which is added, An Enquiry how far the Restrictions laid upon the Trade of Ireland, by British Acts of Parliament, are a Benefit to the British Dominions in general, and to the English in particular, for whose separate Advantage they were intended. Dedicated, by Permission, to the Earl of Chatham.

†† As Ireland is become of late Years much more an Object of public Attention than formerly, the Parliamentary Debates in that Kingdom must become proportionably more interesting and important. In the Debates of the above Period, are many Particulars which distinguish them from those of all preceding Years; and many Questions are discussed, which must be the Subject of Debate in all Times to come.——Among those now offered to the Public are the following: On the Peace. On Pensions, in which both the Legality and Policy of those Grants are fully considered. On Inland Navigation. The Limitation of Parliaments. The Place-Bill. The State of the Nation. Libels, and the North-Briton. Jobs and their Tendency. Power of Grand Juries. Faction. A Tax on Dogs. Privilege of Parliament. False Patriotism mistaken for Liberty. Licentiousness. Recovery of Tythes. Power of Magistrates. And on a great Variety of other Subjects equally curious and important. It may not be improper to mention, that these are the first Speeches of the Irish Parliament which have ever been published. The Enquiry became necessary by the frequent Mention of the Restrictions on Trade in the Debates: It is not, however, confined to the Trade of Ireland, as it shews the Rise of Trade in general, what is its Use, when it attains Perfection, and when it degenerates into Excess. In Two Vols. 8vo. 12s bound.

36. An Essay on Crimes and Punishments. Translated from the Italian. With a Comment. of M. de Voltaire, transl. from the French, 4s 6d bound

37. The History of the Minority, during the Years 1762, 1763, 1764, and 1765. Exhibiting the Conduct, Principles and Views of that Party. A new Edit. being the 4th. with several Additions. 5s bound, or 4s sewed.

* * * The very extraordinary, and almost singular Success which this Book has met with, is the strongest and best Testimony of its Merit. It has moreover been translated in Holland, France, and other foreign Nations; in which, as well as in England, it is much read.

38. Mr. Phillips's History of the Life of Cardinal Pole. A new Edition. In 2 vols. 8vo. 10s bound.

39. Historical Memoirs of his late Royal Highness William Duke of Cumberland. Inscribed to the E. of Albermarle. In 1 vol. 8vo, 6s bound

40. The Trade and Navigation of Great-Britain considered, by Joshua Gee. To which are now added, several interesting Notes, and an Appendix concerning the Trade with Portugal. The whole carefully revised by a Merchant. 3s bound.

41. The London Merchant, a Tale, translated from the French of Madame Gomez. 1s

42. The Conduct of the late Administration examined, relative to the late American Stamp-Act. Containing a great Number of Original Papers, extremely interesting to the Public; particularly the Letters of Mr. Conway to the Governors in America; the Answers; Representations of the Board of Trade to the King, &c. &c. A new Edition. 3s

43. A Letter upon Libels, Warrants, Seizure of Papers, &c. &c. With the Postscript, and an Appendix. Sixth Edition. Including the Author's last Corrections and Additions. 2s 6d

44. The Security of Englishmen's Lives; or the Duty, Trust, and Power of the Grand Juries of England. By Lord Somers. 1s 6d

45. A Speech against the Suspending and Dispensing Prerogative. "It is but forty Days Tyranny at the Outside." Per legem terræ. The sixth Edition, corrected. 1s 6d

46. Debates and Proceedings of the British House of Commons, during the third, fourth, and fifth Sessions of the third Parliament of his late Majesty, held in the Years 1743, 1744, 1745, and 1746. In two vol. Octavo. 10s 6d Boards, and 12s bound.

47. A Continuation of this Work will speedily be published.

48. Traveller's Pocket-Book; or Ogilby and Morgan's Book of the Roads improved. With many additional cross Roads. 1s 6d bound.

49. An Account of Denmark. Antient and Modern, containing its History, from Swain the first Christian King to the present Time; including a particular Narrative of the great Revolution in the Danish Government in 1660; when the People, no longer able to bear the Tyranny and Oppression of their Nobles, surrendered their Liberties to the Crown, and thereby made their King absolute. Also the Geography of Denmark; including an accurate Description of the Cities, Palaces, Curiosities, &c. An Account of his Danish Majesty's Revenues, Coin, Royal Navy, and Army. Treaties with Foreign Powers, particularly with Great-Britain. The Trade and Commerce of the Kingdom. Political Interests and Views of the State. Temper and Manners of the People, &c. &c. Ornamented with a fine Print of the present King and Queen of Denmark. 3s sewed.

50. The Foreigner's Guide, in French and English; being a very proper Companion for every Stranger on his coming to London; containing a Description of every Thing in that City, and its Neighbourhood, worthy his Observation. 2s 6d bound.

51. The Double Mistake, a Comedy, as it is acted at the Theatre-Royal in Covent-Garden, 1s 6d

52. The Dramatic Time-Piece. Being an exact Calculation of the Length of the Time each Act (in all the acting Plays) takes in performing at the Theatres-Royal in Drury-Lane, Covent-Garden, and the Hay-Market. By J. Brownsmith, Prompter. 1s.

A List of the most esteemed Pamphlets lately published in England and America, on the Subject of taxing the British Colonies, and regulating their Trades.

53. A Defence of the Colony Charters. By Jer. Drummer, 1s. 6d.

54. The Right of the Colonies asserted. By Mr. Otis, of Boston. 2s.

55. Considerations on the Propriety of taxing the Colonies. By Mr. Delany of Maryland. 1s. 6d.

56. The Regulations respecting the Colonies considered. By Mr. Dickenson of Philadelphia. 1s 6d
57. An Account of a Conference on the Subject of Representation. 1s.
58. Late Occurrences in America, and Policy of Gr.Br. considered. 1s
59. The Grievances of the American Colonies examined. 1s.
60. Rights of Parliament vindicated. 1s.
61. An Application of certain Political Rules to the present State of Great-Britain, Ireland and America. 1s. 6d.
62. A short History of the Conduct of the Ministry, with regard to the American Stamp-Act. 6d.
63. Two Protests against the Repeal of the American Stamp-Act; with Lists of the Minority in both Houses. 1s.
64. Considerations on behalf of the Colonies. 1s.
65. Justice and Necessity of taxing the Colonies. 1s.
66. The Privileges of the Island of Jamaica vindicated. With an impartial Narrative of the Dispute between the House of Representatives and a late Governor of that Island. 2s. 6d.
67. Two Papers on the Subject of taxing the Colonies. Written in 1739 by Sir W. Keith, Mr. Joshua Gee, &c. Price 6d
68. The Examination of Dr. Franklin, on the Subject of Repealing the American Stamp-Act, &c. Price 1s.
69. Authentic Account of the Proceedings of the Congress held at New-York. Price 1s.
70. The most remarkable of the above, together with "The Conduct of the Ministry examined," on the same Subject, may be had in three Volumes half bound and lettered. Price 18s.
A List of Political Pamphlets, &c. distinguishing the respective Year of their Publication, and Prices. In 1767.
71. A List of all the Changes made in the Administration of Government since his present Majesty's Accession. 1s.
72. Dr. Williamson's Narrative of the extraordinary Case of a late Commoner. 6d.
73. Letter to the E. of Bute upon his Union with the E. of Chatham. 6d
74. A Letter to a Minister on the Subject of the East-India Dividend. 6d
75. Protest against the Bill for rescinding the East-India Dividend. 6d.
76. East-India Observer Extraordinary. By J. Z. Holwell, Esq; Two-pence Half-penny.
77. A Letter from Mr. Wilkes to the D. of Grafton. 8th Edit. 1s.
78. An Ode to the Earl of Ch——m. 6d.
79. The Honest Elector's Proposal for rendering the Votes of all British Constituents, free and independent. 1s.
In 1766.
80. A Free Appeal to the People on the Conduct of the present Administration. 1s.
81. Considerations on the Dearness of Corn and Provisions. 1s. 6d.
82. Observations on the Farmer's Three Letters. 6d.
83. Political Speculations on the high Price of Labour and Dearness of Provisions. In two Parts, 2s. Either Part may be had separate. 1s.
84. Enquiry into the Conduct of a late Rt. H. Commoner. 5th Edit. 1s 6d
85. An Examination of the Principles and Disinterestedness of the same Gentleman. 1s.
86. The E——l of Ch——m's Apology. A Poem. 1s.
87. Short Considerations upon some late extraordinary Grants. 6d.

88. A true History of a late short Administration. 6d.
 89. An Address to the People, shewing the Advantages arising from the frequent Change of Ministers. Price 1s. 6d.
 90. A Parallel between the Four last Years of Queen Anne, and the Four first of George III. 1s.
 91. The Scourge. A Poem. 1s. 6d.
 92. The Precipice. A Satirical Print. 1s

In 1765.

93. The Principles of the Changes in 1765, impartially examined, and the Reasons of some Great Men for the refusing, and others accepting the Offers of the Court at that Time, explained. Fourth Edition. 1s 6d
 94. The State of the Nation, with regard to its Income, Expenditure, and unfunded Debt. Fifth Edit. 1s.

95. Thoughts on the Dismissal of Officers for their Conduct in Parl. 1s
 96. A Letter from Candor to the Public Advertiser, on the Subjects of General Warrants, and some Proceedings in the Courts of Justice. 1s.
 97. A Collection of remarkable Passages from the Briton, North-Briton, and Auditor. 1s

In 1764.

98. A Letter from Albermarle-Street, to the Cocoa-Tree. 2s.
 99. The Budget, Eleventh Edition. 1s
 100. Account of the late Mr. Legge. With the Letters which passed between him and Mr. Martin, relative to the Hampshire Election, and his Dismissal. 1s

101. The Contest. A Poem. 1s
 102. A Defence of the Minority of the House of Commons, on the Questions relating to General Warrants. 1s
 103. Reply to the Defence of the Majority, on the same Question. 1s
 104. The Right of Appeal to Juries in Causes of Excise, asserted. 1s
 105. Counter Address to the Public on the Dismissal of Gen. Conway. 1s
 106. The remarkable Trials of J. P. Zenger of New-York, and W. Owen, of London, for the Publication of Libels. 1s

107. Fragments and Anecdotes. 1s
 108. An Appendix to the Review of Mr. Pitt's Administration. 1s
 109. A Letter to the Right Honourable George Grenville. 1s 6d
 110. A Letter to the Earl of Hillsborough. By G. Canning, Esq; 1s
 111. Salvation not Necessary, &c. by Charles Hales, Surgeon. 1s
 112. Medical Advice to the Consumptive People of Eng. By P. Stern. 1s
 113. The most material of the above Political Pamphlets, together with "The Letters on Libels, and Lord Somers's Treatise on Grand Juries," may be had in five Volumes, half bound and lettered. Price 1l 6s

114. There are a few Copies left of the Fourth Vol. of the Edition of the Collection of Letters from the Public (during the Years 1762, 1763, 1764, and Part of 1765) a duodecimo Volume, which the Purchasers of the other 3 Vols in that Size, may have to compleat their Sets. 2s 6d bound

J. ALMON has always a choice Collection of the most valuable Modern Books, large and small Editions, many of which are in elegant Bindings. Likewise all New Publications as soon as they appear; and a Collection of the most esteemed Plays. The best of all Kinds of Stationary, such as the thick Dutch Post Paper, gilt and plain; best Dutch Wax, good Pens, best Ink, &c. &c. Noblemen and Gentlemen may always have any Quantity on the shortest Notice; and any Book that happens not to be in the Shop, will, if in Print, always be got, when desired.

